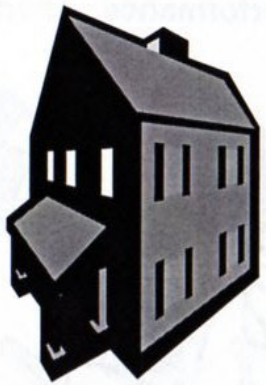
Burton Joyce Players

The Burton Joyce players put on two plays and a pantomime every year. We always welcome new members, either to perform or help backstage. If you would like more information about the Society,please phone our secretary on 0115 9312399.

Our next production, which has not been chosen yet, will be performed at the end of October. Details will be published nearer the time in the Parish Magazine, and also look out for posters and banner.

We would like to thank you for supporting our production, and hope to see you again.



This programme was made by students at RNIB Vocational College Loughborough.

Burton Joyce Players

Presents

The world premiere of

INDEPENDENT STREET

Adapted for the stage by Barry Holland From original book by Joan Wallace

BURTON JOYCE

AND

BULCOTE VILLAGE HALL

An earthy, gritty portrayal of life in Radford in the 1930's

The play is set in Radford, Nottingham during the months between late 1936 and late 1938.

The action takes place in various houses on the street, the Players factory, Sneinton Market and locations around the street.

There will be one interval of 15 minutes.

Joan Wallace

Joan has lived in Nottingham all her life. She has written short stories, which have been locally and nationally published in newspapers, magazines and broadcast on radio. Her four historical novels, set in Nottingham have been published, together with a book of humorous poetry.

Barry Holland

Barry worked for many years as a professional costumier in the theatre and TV, including the Royal Opera House. He is actively involved with the Nottingham Arts Theatre, and has been head of wardrobe for many years.
