WOMENS INSTITUTES

Afternoon: was founded in 1919 in the Village by Miss Blagg. First met in Caernarvon Rooms then it was decided a 'W I Hut' was needed. Mr Earnshaw gave the land, the WI were instrumental in raising funds and the 'Village Hall' was built and opened in 1925 for the use of all the village.
Evening: group formed in 1964 by young mothers. In 1965 Mrs Dunn represented the Group at the National Federations Golden Jubilee Garden Party at Buckingham Palace.

BURTON JOYCE BOWLS CLUB

The club was originally started in the 1920's. The former Bowling Green was situated at the end of the village. Play resumed after the second world war and continued until the 1950's. A new sports complex was built by the riverside, Known as the 'Poplars Sports Ground'. In 1995 a new bowling green was laid and the first members played on it in 1998.

ABBEYFIELD

Abbeyfield is an international charity which aims to provide care and companionship for the elderly. The project in Burton Joyce is to make available 12 apartment syle homes with community rooms, two meals a day and a resident housekeeper. In 1998 a prime site, 'Pooles Corner' was earmarked for an Abbeyfield House and donations, legacies and fund raising have enabled the building to commence. It is hoped the first occupants will take up residence in the Millennium Year.

WINE CIRCLE AND SOCIAL CLUB

First convened in 1977 for enthusiastic wine makers. At first meetings were held in members' homes, then the Scout Hut, but eventually the Small Hall at the rear of the Village Hall became the venue. Guest speakers talk on all aspects of wine making. The social side of the club developed and evenings became more relaxed - members are offered a congenial atmosphere to entertain and be entertained - for a small fee!

THE RIVERSIDE CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The Fellowship have been worshipping in the area around Lowdham and Burton Joyce for over 25 years. Their aim is to ensure that the needs of the people come first. The sermons are both understandable and entertaining and the music is a mixture of old and new songs. A warm welcome awaits everyone at the all-age family service each Sunday morning at the Village Hall.

MILLENNIUM SONG

A new beginning for Burton Joyce
We're looking forward, come raise your voice.
Sing Alleluja the time has come
To welcome in the New Millennium.

Look to the future, the time is near
Another era, a brand new year.
Our expectations have just begun
So welcome in the New Millennium.

Be happy and give of your best,
Think of others, with no selfishness
Count your blessings and thank the Lord too
The past is behind us, be glad you're YOU!

So come along folks, now don't be late
There's really something to celebrate,
Join hands with your neighbour, together as one,
Let's welcome in, let's welcome in, let's welcome in
The New Millennium!
